COMMENT

Honorable Sir:

These comments are being presented in conjunction with the accompanying C-I-P application. It is respectfully submitted that the most recently filed amendment, in the parent application, was rejected by the Examiner on the basis of 35 USC §112, first paragraph, for containing new matter. Therefore, this application has been filed to amend the specification to unequivocally support the subject matter of the currently pending claims. It is therefore requested that the application and claims be examined by the Examiner on the merits.

In view of the above remarks, a favorable consideration of the present application and the passing of this application to issue with all claims allowed is courteously solicited. If the Examiner wishes to modify any of the language of the claims in an effort to move the application towards allowance, a telephone call to the undersigned would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,
